[REDACTED] has been studying Morse code at [REDACTED] during the month of January. Unfortunately this training has had to be suspended for the time being as [REDACTED] was broken into and as a result must be relocated. To date, the relocation has not been effected but it is believed this will be completed by 5 February. [REDACTED] will then resume work on learning Morse code. We have not been satisfied with [REDACTED] progress to date, that is, 25X1A far as learning code is concerned. During [REDACTED] present TDY at [REDACTED] we will determine whether the subject should be retained for [REDACTED] activity. If [REDACTED] has manifested some improvement in code work we will continue to carry him and ready him for [REDACTED] training. Other problems affecting his role in [REDACTED] activity will be discussed with his [REDACTED]
